Boise, Sept. IS.—The two closing games of the Butte series were played today, and both were easy for the locals. In the first Dowling was pounded for eighteen hits with fourteen runs. Thompson held the visitors down to ten hits and they were well scattered. The second game was likewise a slaughter, the home team establishing a long lead in the first two innings. Hammond and Kellackey were put in by Boise as battery after the fourth, just to relieve the other men. The game was ended at the end of the first half of the seventh by agreement. Score:
